

I believe it is highly unethical for a large media organization such as Sinclair to use the public airways to sponsor a totally one-sided view of a political candidate. Their selection of key states as swing states for the election is obviously a politically motivated move and should be stopped.